

Susan St. Louis

Thursday, 31 May 2007

Susan St. Louis grew up on the East Coast, and was introduced to the game of soccer after graduating from high school. She went on to play varsity soccer at Harvard College, and achieved All-Ivy, All-East and All-American honors. She has been actively involved in coaching for the last nine years, and is in her fourth season of coaching for Desert United. Currently, she holds a National D license. She is married to Khoi Le and has 3 daughters.